

The map illustrates the geographical distribution of campuses in the Osaka region and their accessibility via public transport. Key features include:

- Central Hub: Osaka (Umeda) is the central node, with major lines radiating outwards.
- Northward Connections: Lines lead to Osaka International Airport, Minami-Senri International Plaza, and various campuses in the northern part of the region like Takatsuki and Senriyama.
- Eastward Connections: Lines connect to the Hanshin Main Line and other regional lines, leading to areas like Sakai and Tennoji.
- Southward Connections: Lines lead to the Kansai International Airport and other southern locations.
- Highlighted Area: A red box and arrow specifically point to the Senriyama Campus area, indicating its location relative to the central Osaka area.
